LIFE

School activities put life into the process of learning

Excitement . . . Triumph . . . Romance . . .

And just plain good times.

These things are school life.

This year's homecoming was entitled "Autumn Nocturne." The decorations on the float and at Greenridge Country Club carried out this theme. Many of those who witnessed the cold but happy scene of the night before, attended the dance, Our king, Garfield Hood and striking queen, Nancy Friedrich reigned over the evening's festivities. The high point of the evening came when it was announced that Union had secured the city championship, making the night a complete success.

Pat Word, Linda Gray, Jim Beverwyk, Mary Parsaca, Gar Hood, King; Nancy Friedrich, Queen; Dave Leonard, Anita Phillips, Ed Van Portfliet, Leslie Riemersma.

AUTUMN NOCTURNE

Margie Foess and Pete Mervenne give a toast to the new reigning king and queen.

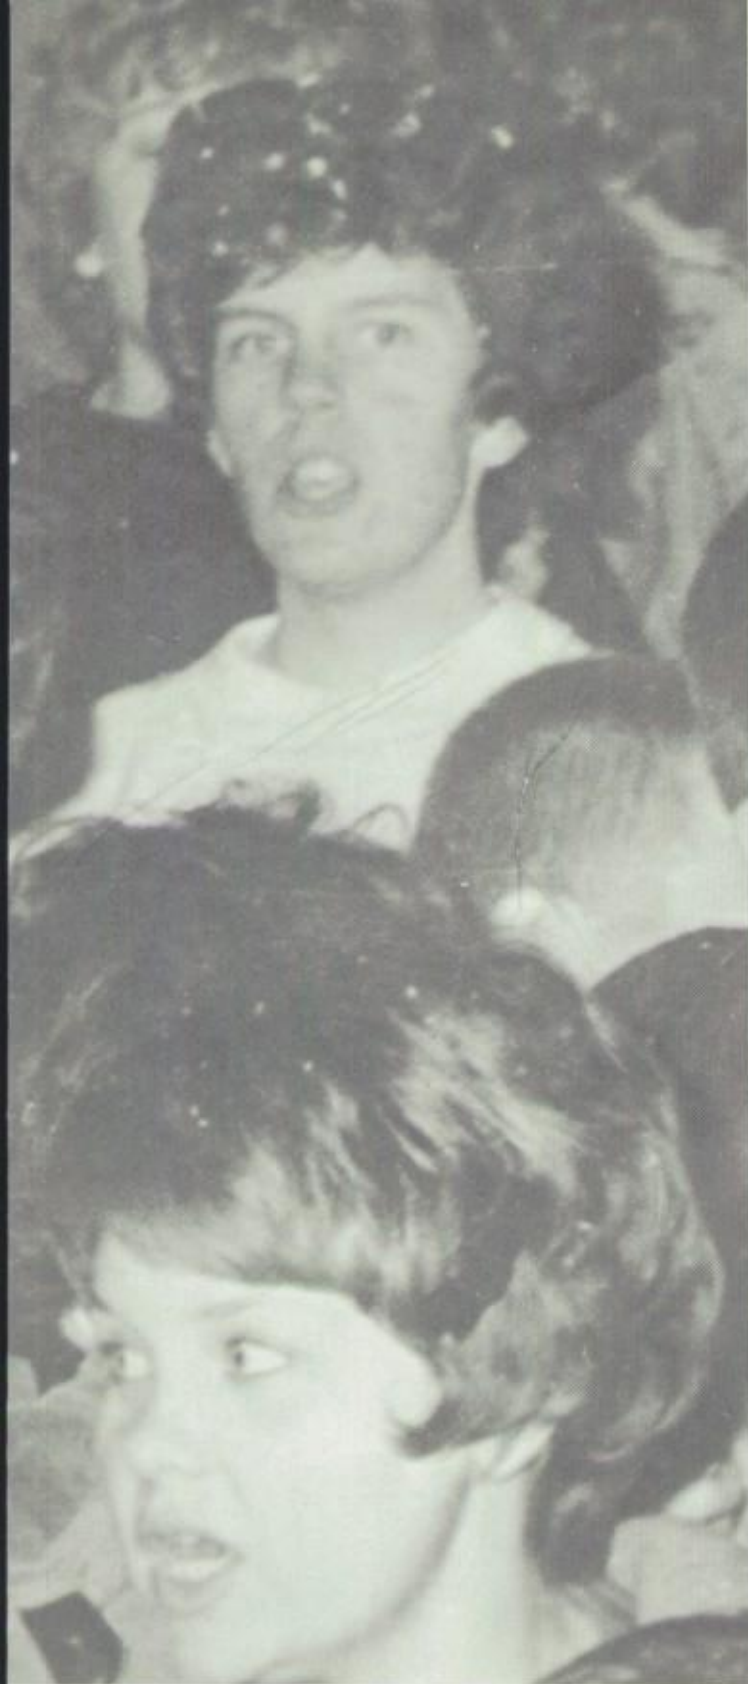

Aurora salesmen learn new techniques.

After this stunt, the girls left the school . . . accompanied by police.

"And leave the driving to us."

"... like we did last summer."

Good grief ... more posters!

What's he staring at me like that for . . . like a boiled owl?

If this is a costume party, who's is she supposed to be?

Where's Jack?

Despite their grim expressions, these members of the cast appreciate the efforts of the make-up committee.

Two highlights of the school year were the Sweetheart Swirl and the Junior Prom. Sue Laraway, Sue Ratliff, and Val Pellerito represented their classes at the Morton House, where the Swirl was held. Later in the year, the Prom, with its theme of "Moonlight Magic" was held at the Pantlind Hotel.

This year's Frolics interrupted the variety and liveliness of the "Sounds of the Sixties." The success of the show was entirely dependent on the hard work of individual students.

The Union basketball team was riding high early in the season. However, time seemed to take its toll and when all was said and done we were 3rd in the city. Nevertheless, the spirit and skill of our team was fully evidenced in the State Finals as it rolled on to the District Championship and brought a happy ending to the season.

Mary Lamper, Linda Gray, Nicky Farougi, Barb Rauser, Cookie Demoray, Anita Phillips, and Georgia Pederson.

Our Varsity Cheerleaders have taken some of the "spectator" out of "spectator sports" by making the audience take part in the activities.

Dear Ellen,
 Well, we really

 terrific summer and please change

The tennis team enthusiastically looks forward to the coming season. This year's team is made up of many returning veterans as well as newcomers.

Golf is more than just a businessman's pastime as is evidenced by the Union squad. They work hard at developing the skills of distance and accuracy which are essential to meet the heavy competition on the course.

Returning lettermen, Herbie Ranta, Gary Versen, Jerry Kangas, Dick Kay and Coach Sukup talk over some golf fundamentals.

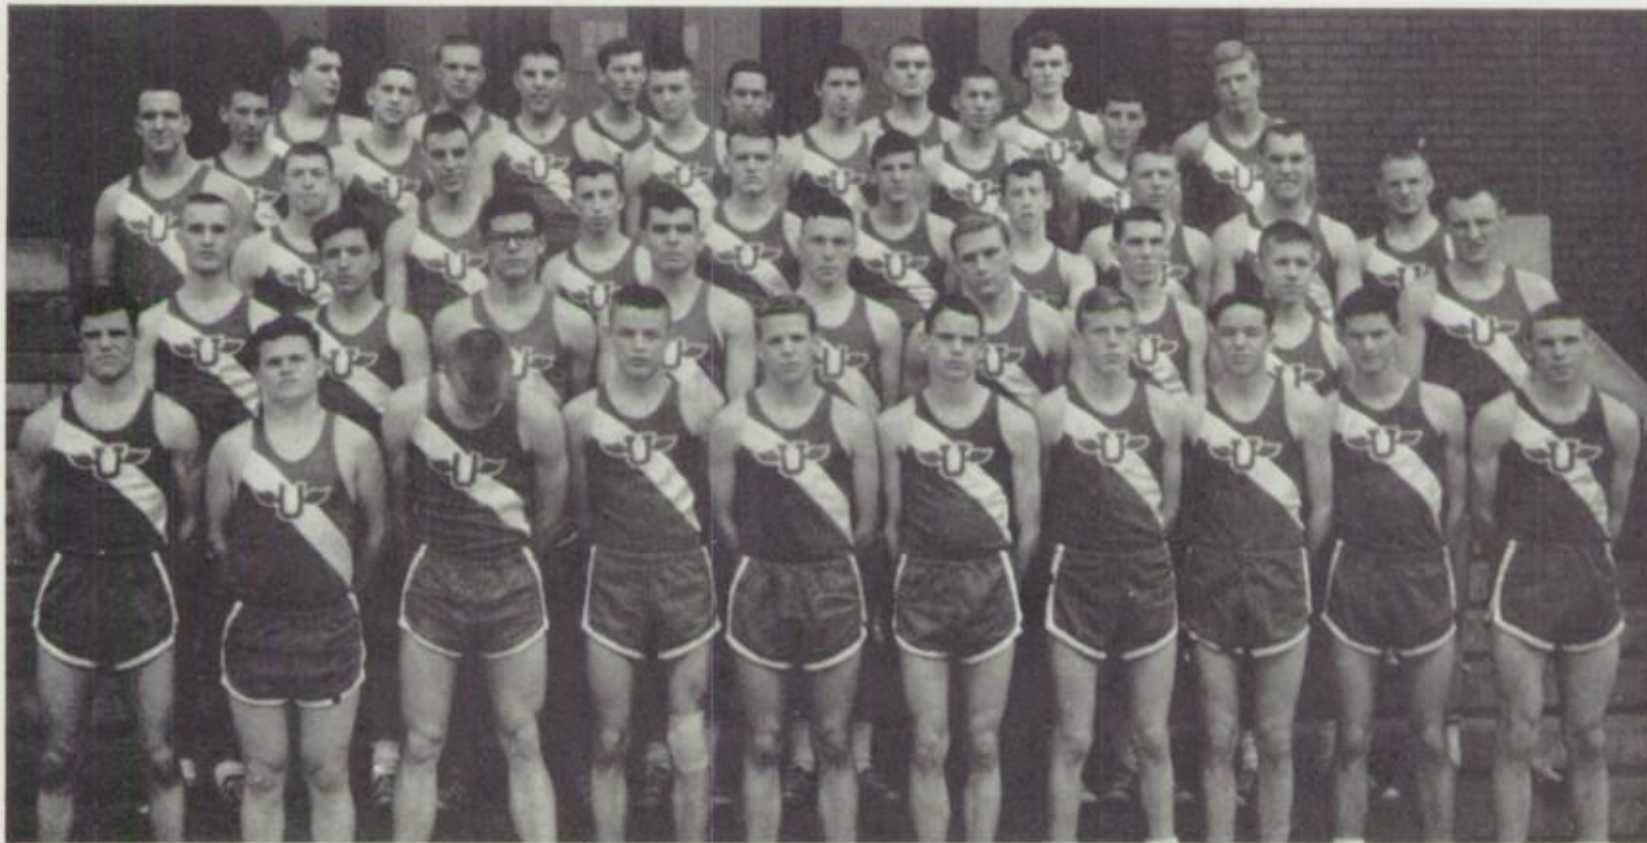

The returning lettermen of this years track team are: Nylander, Brown, McKee, Leonard, Word, Cuson. SECOND ROW: Coach Wavio, Alber, Beverwyke, McNamara, Hirth, VanWeston, and Dykstra.

Track is probably the most competitive of high school sports. Endurance, strength, and timing must be developed by the individual athlete in order to meet the challenge.

FIRST ROW: Albers, Ashker, Beverwyk, Boukma, Bouwens, Brown, Buttermore, Cadwell, Cook, Cuson. SECOND ROW: Dykstra, Fiedorowicz, Hadwin, Hirth, Johnson, Karasinski, Leonard, Makela, McKee. THIRD ROW: McNamara, Niggle, Nylander, O'Betts, Owsinski, Palmer, Palmer, Paton, Pugh, and

son, Harrig, VanderBaan, Jenkins, Brom, and DeBoer. FOURTH ROW: Bosowski, Szyslowski, VanderRoest, Handlin, Cook, Ford, Jewell, and Zwarensteyn.

The catchers of this year's team are: Russ Ford, Jerry Foltic, and Tom Brom.

FACES AND . . .

SEN

ORS

Hi ya Ellen,
Well, I hope you made it this year.
I bet you're going to miss Hooper's wife
(Norma) this summer. (It's her a party).
Take it easy. This summer and don't work to hard. I bet you're going to really miss Edna and you know I can't spell) this summer I know I'm not. Well it sure has been fun mocking and pitting each at you these past few years. Have fun this summer and don't and I mean don't do anything I won't do. BE GOOD!

One group faces especially great change. They will go off to colleges and universities or join the working world. Irregardless, a new way of life is in their future. These are the Seniors.

"50 . . . 51 . . . 52 . . . What'll I do if it sells a million?"

CLASS OF 1963

The boys' line plays mature adult games like "follow the leader."

"I think we mounted the chart wrong. It says 4' 7"."

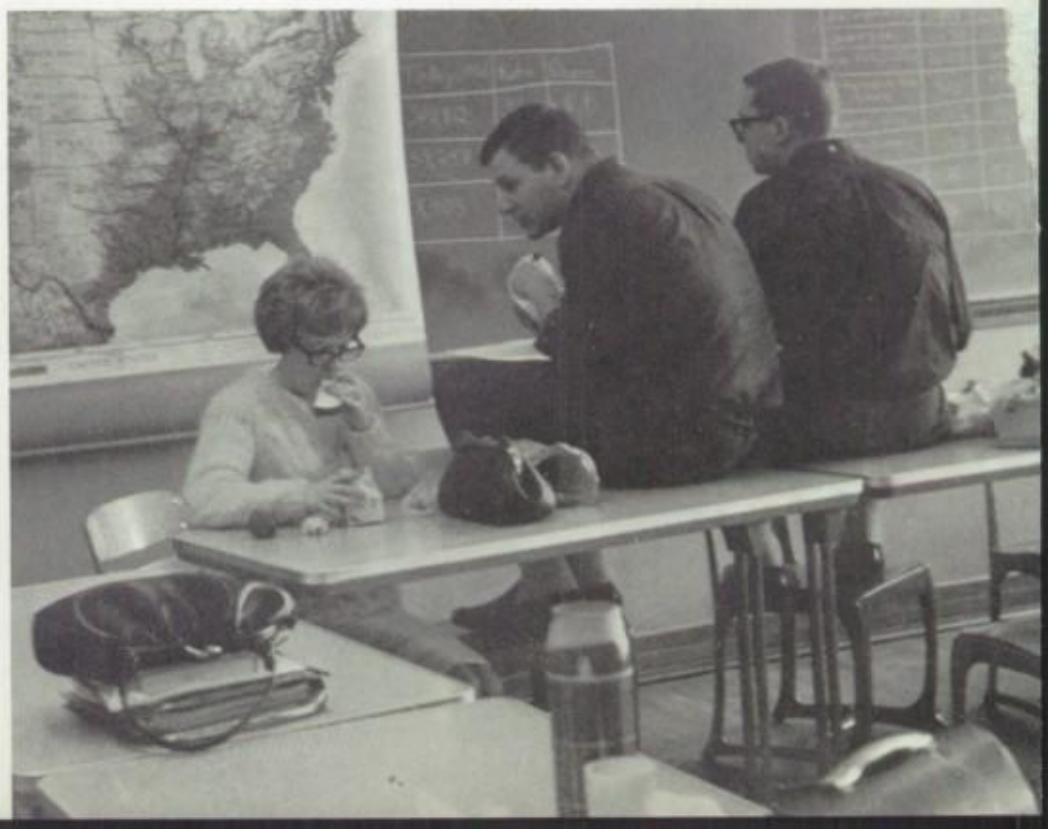

The dignified seniors exhibit their quiet manners on the trip to Michigan State.

We demonstrate our skills by filling bags with candy.

Dear Ellen,
 It sure was even knowing you these past two years!! It sure was fun!! It remember old lady black??? Have a blast this summer & stay out of trouble!
